

Mayor Russ Wall

Mayor's Message: March 2010

The City of Taylorsville is fortunate to have a core group of residents who willingly volunteer their time and expertise in serving on our City's volunteer advisory committees. The City depends heavily upon the efforts of these men and women who address various City issues. We are extremely grateful for the efforts of these dedicated and hard-working individuals.

These committees meet on a regular basis, are well-organized, and function under the leadership of a chairperson, as appointed by the Taylorsville City Council.

Some examples of Taylorsville Volunteer Advisory Committees are:

Taylorsville Arts Council
Budget Review Committee
Economic Development Committee
Healthy Taylorsville Committee
Historic Preservation Committee

Leisure Arts Recreation and Parks (LARP) Committee
Ordinance Review Committee
Public Safety Committee
Taylorsville Dayzz Committee

If you are interested in serving on a Taylorsville Committee, we would love to hear from you. Volunteer applications are available on the City's website at www.taylorsvilleut.gov or by calling City Event Coordinator Elaine Waegner at 801-963-5400.

Once again, we extend our appreciation to the fine citizens of Taylorsville who spend countless volunteer hours in serving our community. Because of the efforts of our volunteers, many good things happen.
