The City of Taylorsville has designated City Youth Ambassadors for 2009-2010 under the guidelines of the Youth Ambassador program. The new Taylorsville City Youth Ambassadors were appointed at City Council Meeting on October 21, 2009. They are Colton Gardner, Amy Braithwaite, Kourtney Miles, Jessica Beauchamp, Noel Gilbert, and Anthony Garcia. The Youth Ambassadors were selected based on criteria established by the City Council, and they will represent the City in an official capacity at ribbon cuttings, groundbreakings, City ceremonies, parades, etc. Five of the designees, Colton, Amy, Kourtney, Jessica and Noel, are seniors at Taylorsville High School. Anthony is a senior at Cottonwood High School. All are Taylorsville residents and are also serving on Taylorsville City Youth Council.

Taylorsville Youth Ambassadors were selected by a panel, based on an oral interview, grade point average, letters of recommendation, and a platform for a service project. At the end of their term of service, scholarships will be awarded to the ambassadors in the amount of $750.00 each. The ambassadors may choose any institution of higher learning.

Taylorsville has opportunities for youth to serve in the community. Besides the Youth Ambassador program, many young people serve on the City Youth Council.
