

West Nile Virus is active in the Salt Lake Valley. The Salt Lake Valley Health Department has reported a second human case in Taylorsville.

Remember to cover up!
Use your insect repellent!

More information is available at www.slvhealth.org/wnv