Tom Haraldsen
Thal Dixon
Jayanne Sindt
Stacey Williams
Jennifer Clark
Linda Garner
Lesa McCullough
Carolee Griffin
Brenton Barwick
Sydney Salter

Clint Johnson serves as the organizer of the EH Writers in Residence program this year. He is the author of Green Dragon Codex, a middle grade fantasy from Wizards of the Coast. His writing experience includes novels in many genres for children, teens, and adults, short stories, academic writing and editing, journalism, and professional technical writing for Atlantic Marketing. He currently works in the writing center at the Salt Lake Community College where he has conducted more than 5,500 one-on-one sessions. Please visit ClintJohnsonWrites.com to learn more about Clint.

Mette Harrison is one of eleven children. She grew up in a home where reading was all around her. Her mother had to limit her and her siblings to ten library books a week! Now she's the mom of five children and spends her days reading and writing and her evenings with her family. She has published seven books (Tris and Izzie, The Princess and the Horse, The Princess and the Snowbird, The Princess and the Bear, Mira, Mirror, The Princess and the Hound, and The Monster in Me), and has spent time at EH working with our children. Please visit metteivieharrison.com to learn more about Mette.

Kristyn Crow is the author of Cool Daddy Rat, Bedtime at the Swamp, The Middle-child Blues, The Really Groovy Story of the Tortoise and the Hare, and has two upcoming picture books, Skeleton Cat and Zombelina. Her books use rhythm, rhyme, and repetition to make reading fun. She is a Utah Book Award nominee, has received starred reviews, and received a blue ribbon from the Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books. Please visit kristyncrow.com to learn more about Kristyn.

Quote from an E.H. Parent

"Our children think it is so cool that they've been able to meet so many authors and learn from them this year! They've always loved school, but it's been fun to watch them get excited about writing and creating stories... and we've enjoyed their creativity.

Thanks EH!"
