DROP OFF THE FOLLOWING AT CITY HALL:

| | | | |
|-------------------|-------------|--------------------|-----------------------|
| Televisions | Scanners | Batteries | Paper Shredding |
| Computer/Printers | Cell Phones | Furniture/Clothing | Fertilizer /Cleansers |
| Fax Machines | Antifreeze | Paint / Oil | Glass |

ALSO: Sign up for Green Waste bins through Wasatch Front Waste and Recycling

A huge thanks to the Taylorsville Green Committee for organizing the City Hall Drop Off event

Also at City Hall—Unified Police will be collecting any unused or expired medications—prescription, over the counter, any meds that need to be cleaned out of your cabinets!

Trees are an amazing asset to our community. We will be replacing trees along Millrace Park with money from a State Forestry grant. If you have a group that would like to participate in planting trees, please call 801-963-5400.

Taylorsville High School, Hartvigsen School, and Plymouth Elementary are partnering with Comcast for Comcast Cares Day. If you are interested in participating in this event go to www.granitecaring.org.

YMCA Healthy Kids Day ~ 10 am to 2 pm at 4223 S. Atherton Drive. Drop in and have some fun after working hard all morning!

This event is NOT replacing the annual dumpster program offered by Wasatch Front Waste and Recycling. Dumpsters will be in the city between May 28th and June 19th.
