QUALIFICATIONS (Attach a statement of up to 200 words):

I received a degree in political science from BYU. In one class, we simulated a negotiation between the U. S. and South Korea. I planned on joining the Korean team to experience the negotiation from the foreign perspective, but when I arrived for class that day, the teacher had assigned me to the U.S. team and my classmates on the U. S. team had appointed me their team leader. This anecdote shows two things about me. People, who have worked with me, see me as a natural leader and I am interested in exploring differing points of view.

I moved to Taylorsville in November of 2007, so when the upcoming 2009 election occurs, I will have lived in Taylorsville almost exactly two years. As a new resident, with no previous involvement in our city's politics, I bring a fresh perspective to city government.

I have been preparing tax returns and advising clients about tax related matters for four years now. My experience includes researching on my clients' behalf. I have been looking out for the interests of my clients and looking out for the interests of my constituents will be my role as a city council member.
