Mayor Invites Robbed Girl Scouts to Sell Cookies at City Hall

TAYLORSVILLE – Taylorsville Mayor Jerry Rechtenbach invited the Girl Scouts, who had their cookie money recently stolen, to sell cookies at Taylorsville City Hall (2600 W. 5400 S.) this Saturday, March 23 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

“Taylorsville is a supportive community. We’ve had residents ask what they can do to help these Girl Scouts and thought this would be a great way to allow our community to rally around them,” said Rechtenbach. “This was a deplorable crime, and our Taylorsville Unified Police Department officers are working hard to find the suspects.”

Saturday, March 16, 2013, the Unified Police Department received a call of a theft at Walmart at 5469 S. Redwood Road. A group of Girl Scouts were selling cookies in front of the Walmart and a male suspect got out of a two-door teal Chevy Cavalier and approached the booth. He grabbed the cash box and ran. Anyone who has information about this case can contact UPD at 385-468-9443.

Girl Scout cookie sales go until this Sunday, March 24. There will be Girl Scout cookie booths going on throughout all communities.
