

ChamberWest presents Luncheon Series

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21, 2017

11:30 A.M. - 1:15 P.M.

STAYBRIDGE SUITES

3038 S. Decker Lake Drive, West Valley City

A Four Leaf Clover of Business Health and Prosperity

RESOURCES AVAILABLE TO HELP YOUR BUSINESS GROW

CALL TO RESERVE
YOUR SEAT
801-977-8755

$20 with advance registration or $30 at the door.

Pay online at www.chamberwest.com

BETH COLOSIMO

Executive Director

Business Development Resources & Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses.

Beth manages a variety of programs which help entrepreneurs and small businesses get started and expand through a variety of training and education workshops, mentoring and conferences. She enjoys working with those looking to gain education to make a difference in their businesses and communities. Prior to joining Salt Lake Community College, Beth was with EDCUtah working with companies looking to expand into Utah. Prior to EDCUtah, Beth owned and operated her own retail home furnishings and design business in Utah.

JONNIE WILKINSON, MPA

Regional Manager

Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC), helping Utah small businesses find, bid, and win procurement opportunities with federal, state and local government entities.

Johnnie previously served as Associate Director of Utah Business Expansion and Retention and has more than thirty years of experience in widely varied areas of economic development. He is a member of the Association of Procurement Technical Assistance Centers (APTAC), the Utah Alliance for Economic Development, and is a certified Associate Contracting Assistance Specialist (ACAS). Mr. Wilkinson earned a Master of Public Administration (MPA) from Brigham Young University and is a recipient of the Corporate Alliance Relationship Mastery Award (CARMA).

JIM HERRIN, MBA, CGBP

Director

Salt Lake Region Small Business Development Center, largest and most accessible statewide source to help with everything from starting, to maintaining, and growing your business.

Jim Herrin has spent nearly 30 years assisting small business or managing them. For seven years he worked for the State of Utah in the Office of International Business Development. Jim then served for 17 years in management of small biomedical companies. In 2012, Jim joined the Utah SBDC Network as the Assistant State Director, and was appointed Director of the Salt Lake Region SBDC in 2014. He is also an adjunct professor with Webster University located at Hill Air Force Base where he teaches corporate finance.

MELISSA WORTHEN

Executive Vice President

SCORE, advising on many business related topics from management, marketing, hiring, financing, legal, business plans, social media and a multitude of other issues.

Melissa has a business management background with her love for people and connecting resources leading her to a volunteer leadership position with SCORE. She has found SCORE to be an outstanding resource for small business that has opened many doors in allowing her to help others be successful. In addition to working at City Journals as an Account Executive, she has served as chair of the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life, project manager for two local community parks and currently sits on several committees and volunteers for many organizations throughout the Salt Lake Valley.

